FOR PARENTS AND TEENS

ARE YOU SMARTER THAN AN ELEVENTH GRADER?

Monday, September 30. 7–8:30 PM.

Join Bob Axelrod, Founder and President of SCOREBUILDERS of Long Is land, who has served the Jericho and Syosset communities for more than twenty-five years, as he guides you on the journey through College Board SAT Math, Critical Reading and Writing Skills problems.

This exploration of the world of standardized testing is guaranteed to enlighten and entertain; 9th – 11th graders teamed with their parents should find this adventure particularly valuable as you work together to reason, resolve and bond.

- Embark with Bob into the land of the more challenging SAT problems while you internalize what's really being tested--subject matter expertise, critical thinking, insight, focus and stamina
- Explore the pragmatic sources and means to acquire the subject matter expertise required—math, vocabulary, reading comprehension, technical English, essay development
- Discover the do's and don'ts for the timing and strategy for acquiring knowledge and support—when to launch these efforts and how to determine the right strategy for traveling forward

At journey's-end:

- Parents: You, as the provider of inspiration and resources for your child, will arrive better prepared to help your child optimize his or her standardized test performance.
- Parents: You will solve actual College Board problems with Bob's guidance and demystify the SAT's. Discover whether you are smarter than an Eleventh Grader!!

Parents and children are encouraged to attend.
