THE OTHER SIDE OF THE 50s

with LINDA IPANEMA & STAN EDWARDS

Remember when we had records, the old 45s, and all the hits were on side "A"? Well, Linda and Stan are doing the "B sides" and that's where "the other side of the 50s" comes in. So many of the "B" sides were as good, if not better, than the "A" sides. You will hear songs like Theresa Brewer's Music, Music, Music, Johnny Mathis' Chances Are, Peggy Lee's Fever and many others — all "B" sides. Linda Ipanema, also known as the "Queen of Dixieland," has been in show business her entire life. In addition to stage musicals, she has appeared in the films A Bronx Tale and The Pope of Greenwich Village and the TV show Law and Order. Linda has performed in all of the major New York City metropolitan area clubs, festivals and outdoor concerts. Stan Edwards was the MC/singer of the famous Jazz Club at the Village Gate for 14 years and appeared in many TV and radio shows across the country. He has headlined at Birdland and toured with Buddy Morrow & the Tommy Dorsey Band.
